

Scholarship Update 04/26/17

College Specific - Nomination Scholarships

New Scholarship Opportunities

University of Minnesota's Phi Sigma Kappa chapter is offering a $500 scholarship to recognize incoming freshman males who have achieved excellence and have financial need. Application available at <https://principledmanscholarship.wufoo.com/forms/2017-principled-man-scholarship/>
Deadline is July 31.

Lawrence Technological University is offering a $8,000 Award in Excellence in Science and Math to current juniors who have outstanding achievements in these areas. Nicolet may nominate one student. If interested, see counselor.
Deadline is May 1.

Previously Posted Opportunities

Concordia University and Closing the Achievement Gap

Consortium has an $8,000 scholarship opportunity for students with a 2.5 GPA or higher interested in attending Concordia University and studying education. Interested students should see counselor for nomination ASAP.

University of Texas at Dallas has scholarship opportunities for National Merit Finalists. For more information, go to National Merit Finalist Scholarship

Concordia University-Mequon Dr. Michael Uden, Dean of the School of Education says there is a scholarship program for students of color interested in pursuing education or social work degrees through Concordia University and complete the degree within 5 years. Scholarship amount is $2,000 a year in addition to financial aid. Please contact Dr. Uden at 262-243-2612 or email him at michael.uden@cuw.edu for more information.