

What is an Individual Student Report (ISR)?

The ISR shows parents/guardians how their child performed on the Wisconsin Forward Exam. Below is a graphical breakdown of the ISR.

Page 1

- Identifying Information: The student's name, grade, date of birth, local student ID (if available), school, district, and test date are shown in the top left of the report.
- General information about and purpose of the Forward Exam
- Student Performance Levels: The table on the right side provides a summary of the individual student's achievement for each tested content area. Descriptions of each performance level can be found in the colored bars below the table.
 - Please note your child's State Percentile Rank on the ISRs. It compares your child's score to others across the state. For example, a percentile rank of 75 means your child scored as well or better than 75 percent of test takers at the same grade and in that same subject.

About the Wisconsin Forward Exam
English Language Arts, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies

The goal is for all Wisconsin students to score proficient or advanced.

Performance Levels

- Advanced: Student demonstrates thorough understanding of and ability to apply the knowledge and skills for their grade level that are associated with college career readiness.
- Proficient: Student demonstrates adequate understanding of and ability to apply the knowledge and skills for their grade level that are associated with college career readiness.
- Basic: Student demonstrates partial understanding of and ability to apply the knowledge and skills for their grade level that are associated with college career readiness.
- Below Basic: Student demonstrates minimal understanding of and ability to apply the knowledge and skills for their grade level that are associated with college career readiness.

Purpose of this Report
This report provides information about student achievement on the Wisconsin Forward Exam in relation to the Wisconsin Academic Standards. It presents data that may help students, parents, and educators identify specific areas of strength and need.

- The final page of the Individual Student Report includes information and resources regarding the following topics:
 - Wisconsin Forward Exam information
 - Assessment Accommodations and Supports
 - Wisconsin Academic Standards
 - Use of the Student Report

Wisconsin Forward Exam

The Forward Exam is a joint effort of the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI), Wisconsin educators, and our test contractor, the Midwest-based Data Recognition Corporation (DRC). The exams are given to meet state and federal reporting and accountability requirements. Results from the Forward Exam are used to create Wisconsin School Report Cards, and to complete mandatory federal reporting. For more information about the Forward Exam see: <http://dpi.wi.gov/assessment/forward>

Assessment Accommodations and Supports

State and federal laws require that state assessments allow for the inclusion of all students, including students with disabilities and English language learners. Accommodations and supports are practices and procedures that provide equitable access to grade-level content. They are intended to reduce the effects of a student's disability or level of language acquisition; they do not reduce learning expectations. The accommodations or supports provided to a student must be consistent for classroom instruction, classroom assessments, and state assessments. It is important to note that, while some accommodations or supports may be appropriate for instructional use, they may not be appropriate for use on a standardized assessment. For more information about the accommodations and supports see: <http://dpi.wi.gov/assessment/forward/accommodations>

Wisconsin Academic Standards

Wisconsin Academic Standards specify what students should know and be able to do in the classroom. Standards serve as goals for teaching and learning, and enable students, parents, educators, and citizens to know what students should have learned by a given time. Clear statements about what students must know and be able to do are essential. This helps to ensure that our schools offer rigorous, rich, and well-rounded opportunities for students to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary for college and career readiness. Assessing progress towards standards and learning objectives is accomplished daily through formative practices, periodically through interim assessments, and annually through a variety of summative measures, including the Wisconsin Forward Exam. For more information about Wisconsin academic standards, see: <http://dpi.wi.gov/standards>

Use of the Student Report

Three subject level scores are presented on this report:

- Scale Score is a numeric score that is used for measuring achievement growth of a student or group of students within a subject area from year to year. Separate scales are established for each subject and cannot be compared between subject areas.
- Percentile Rank compares a student's score to other test takers in the grade and subject. For example, a percentile rank of 75 means the student scored as well as or better than 75 percent of test takers.
- Performance Level is a categorical score. The goal for all students is to score at the proficient or advanced level.

Three standards scores are presented on this report:

- Student's Points is the number of points a student earned for each standard and for the overall test. Total Possible Points is also presented.
- Standards Performance Index (SPI) is an estimate of how many questions a student would have answered correctly if there had been 100 questions covering the standard on the test.
- SPI Level is an estimate of performance level on each standard. The performance level categories are advanced, proficient, basic, and below basic.
